SYNOPSIS

Matt and Moti are actors. Small-time, Canadian, undiscovered talent. Moti's been feeling a little alienated lately; a little lonely. Thankfully, Matt's identified the cause: Moti doesn't watch the credits at the end of the movie. Matt knows that it's all about attitude: they aren't just credits, they're people. They're community. They're Moti's number one defense against the loneliness and despair of an acting career.

FILMMAKER BIO

Shawn Postoff is a writer, director and producer. In 2005 he completed his third season as a Writer/Producer on Showtime's hit television series, Queer as Folk. His short films include Paradise Attempted (2000), the award-winning Coming to Terms (2000), Release (2001), and Talk Salò (2003). Credit Role is his fifth film.
